Search and Rescue

Organization

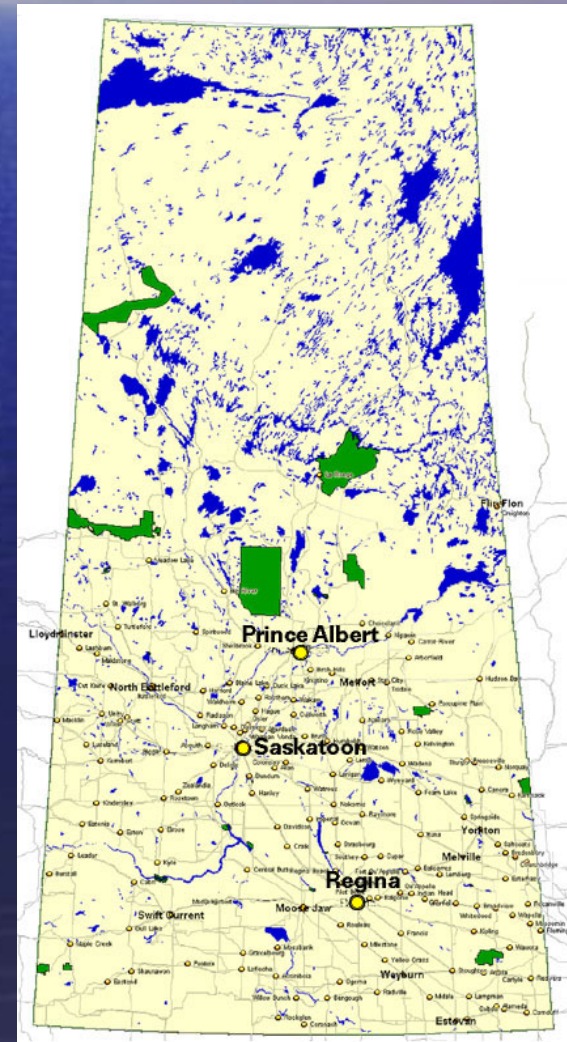

Sask Justice has designated the RCMP to manage all search and rescue in Saskatchewan except for aircraft

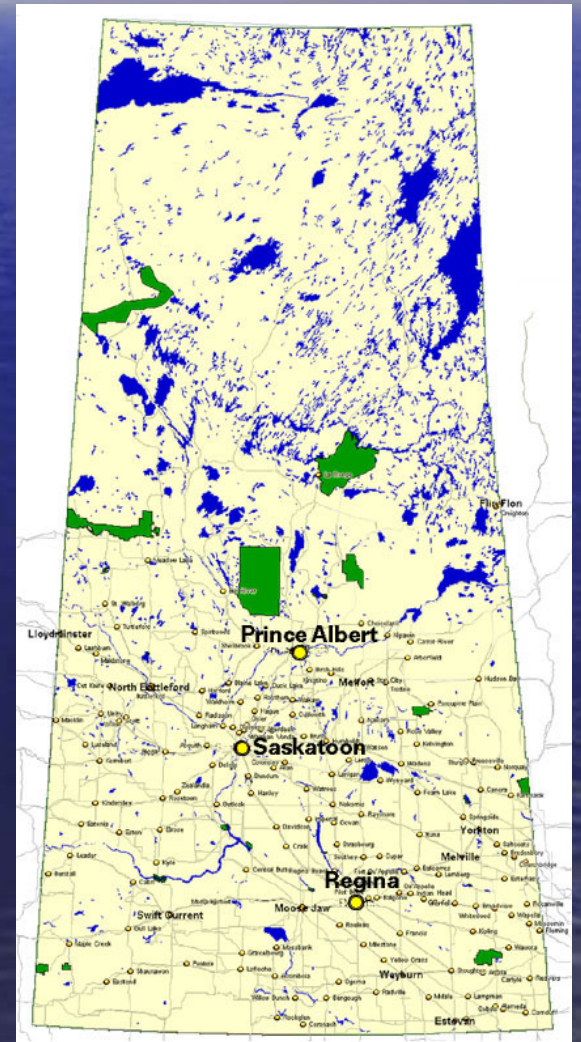

Organization

For Search and Rescue the RCMP have divided the province into 4 areas. Each area is looked after by Community Services

Organization

Northern Saskatchewan is looked after by Don Dunk – who is the NCO for Community Services.

Don lives in Prince Albert and travels extensively in the north working with Community Services.

Organization

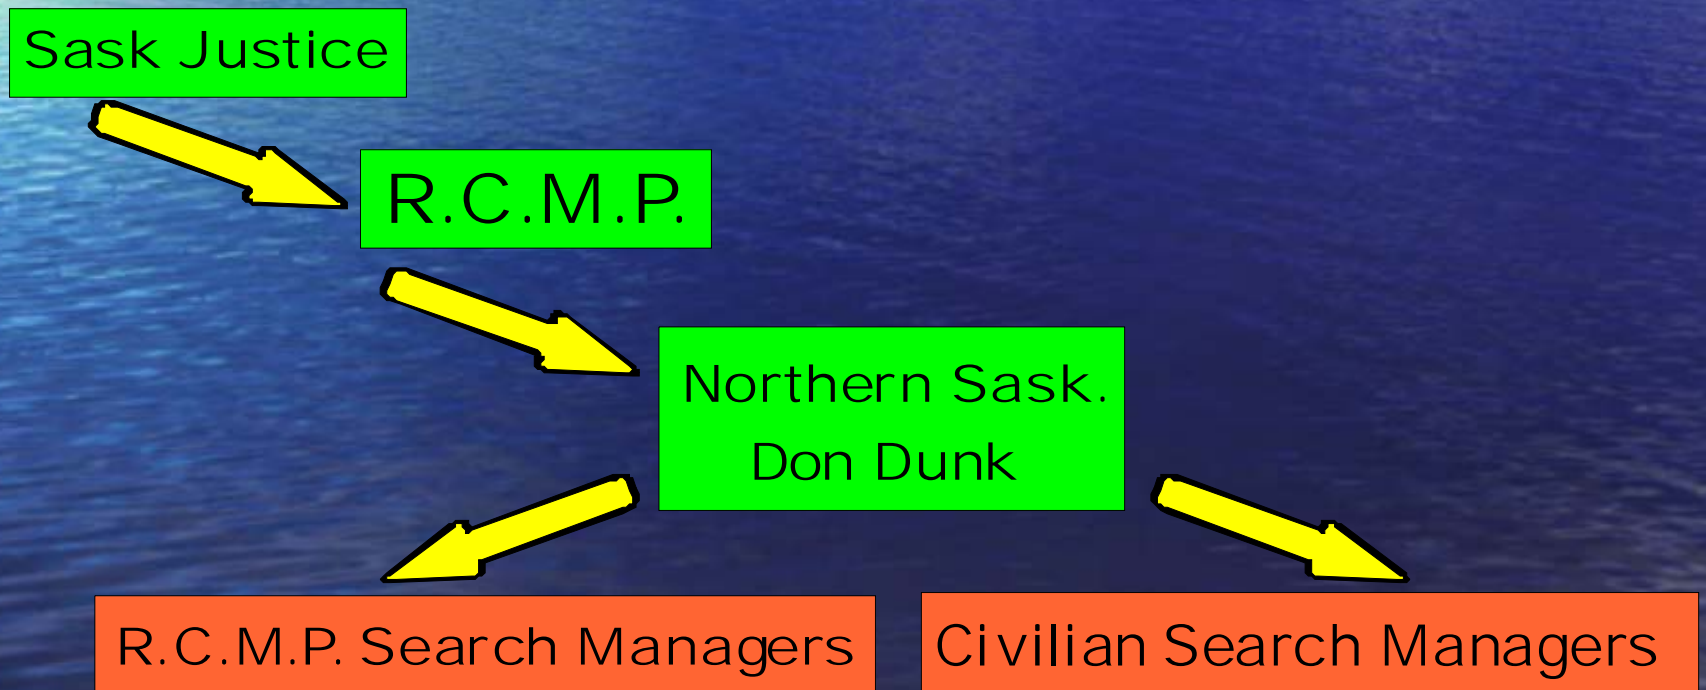

Because Don can't be everywhere at the same time the RCMP have trained Search Managers who report to Don.

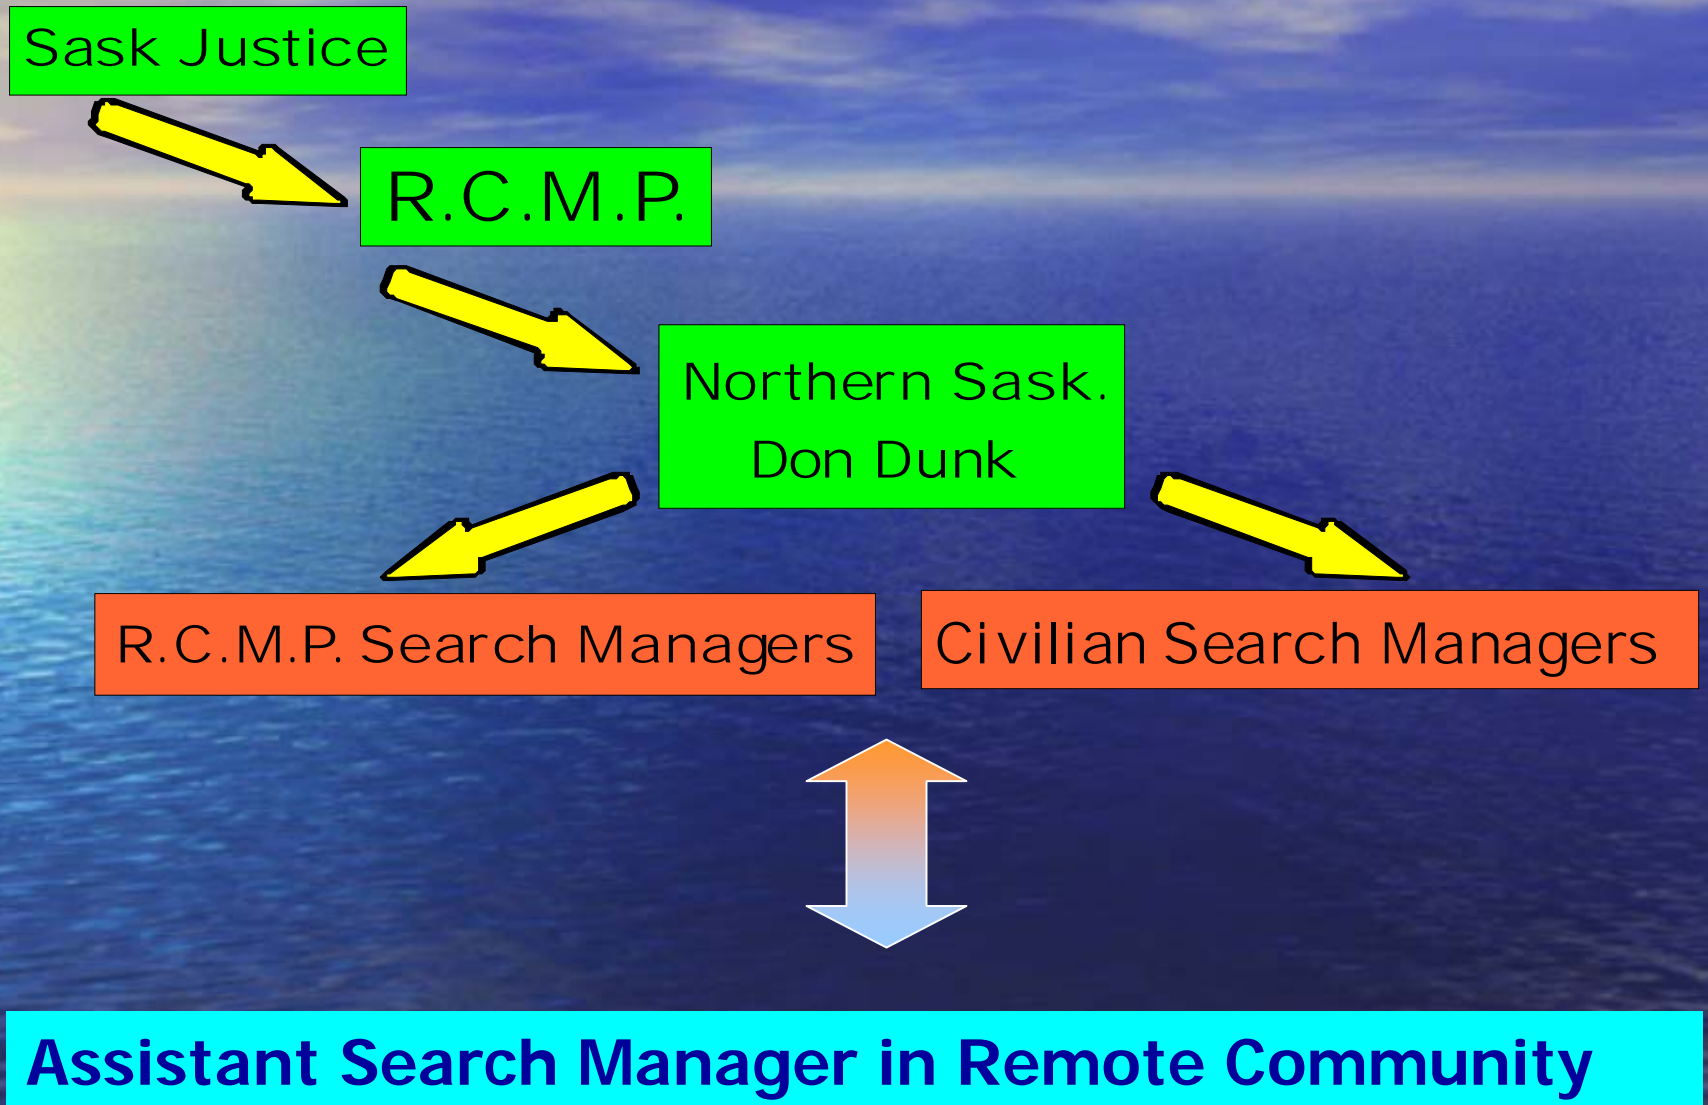

These Search Managers can be RCMP Officers or Civilian Search Managers
